Watch the two railroads.
Congress meets November 9th.
Two weeks from to-day is election day.

The pupils in our schools can now be taught to bound Alaska.

The country has grown too big for Wall street to make it panic.

The postoffice investigation has given Payne a pain. He may resign.

The Hearst party should be given a chunk of climate to take home as a souvenir.

In the statehood procession it is hoped that the followers of W. R. Hearst may not get as far behind scheduled time as on this trip.

The campaign cry of the Fusionists in the New York City campaign is "Virtue Against Vice." Notwithstanding, the Dowie campaign it looks as if Vice might get the most votes on Tuesday.

The peace footing of the Canadian militia is to be raised from 38,000 to 45,000 and supplied with officers and rifles sufficient for an emergency force of 100,000 men. If this country and Canada follow the example of the European nations and start a competition in the increase of our armed forces, it is hard to see just where it would end.

The Hearst Boom.

Our Washington correspondent has this to say of the Hearst boom.

The presidential boom of William Randolph Hearst continues to grow. Representative Shober of New York who has just arrived here, says, "North, south, east and west there has been a great deal of talk about Representative Hearst, and with good reason. He is in touch with the president-makers, the people, everywhere. I know that there is a large number of practical politicians in New York state and elsewhere who think that with the New York state endorsement Mr. Hearst is the only man who can capture the Democratic national convention. Mr. Hearst's large and valuable business interests should attract to him a good proportion of the independent vote and his popularity among the industrial classes in the east would mean his election. The reports from Georgia and elsewhere in the south all go to show that Mr. Hearst is rapidly gaining strength."

On account of the Hearst boom, Senator Gorman's chances in the south do not look quite so bright, but it is said that his friends are not worrying. They declare it is a good policy to create a little diversion at this time, while Mr. Gorman all along has been inclined to keep himself in the background. He believes that it is best to have the other fellows talked about. Owing to personal rivalries and to the lack of that harmony which comes from party loyalty in the final contest, early booms are dangerous to the candidate proposed, and Senator Gorman is politician enough to realize this. Furthermore, if Maryland, where the race question is made the issue, should be carried by the Democrats, Mr. Gorman would be regarded as a strong candidate against President Roosevelt. Therefore while Hearst's press bureaus and labor agents continue to boom his candidacy, Gorman's friends are awaiting the result of the election.

A BAD ACCIDENT.

Wagon Ran Over Young Echols, Crushing Him Badly--- Unconscious When Found.

The son of J. H. Echols, who lives about fifteen miles south-east, was found yesterday morning near his home in an unconscious condition, and there is very little hope entertained by the attending physician for his recovery.

The young man, who is about 22 years of age, was driving a hay wagon and in some unaccountable manner he fell off and the wagon passed over his breast, crushing him very badly. He was alone at the time the accident occurred and was alone and unconscious for at least three hours before he was found and removed to his home. A physician was hastily summoned from the city and at the last report he had not regained consciousness. The wagon and horses were found a short distance from where the accident occurred.

A Modern Office.

Work on the new office building for the Kemp Lumber company at their yards in this city is being pushed as rapidly as possible by E. P. Rasmussen, the hustling contractor. The big vault door is here ready to be put in. The office will be modern in every particular.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Blackwelder.

Dr. F. C. Blackwelder of this city, who was married a short time ago at his old home in Litchfield, Illinois, returned on last evening's train with his bride and they will make Roswell their future home. For the present they will be at the Grand Central hotel.

Dr. Blackwelder has not lived in Roswell long, but he is one of the rising professional men of the city. THE RECORD extends congratulations and wishes them many years of wedded happiness.

TELEPHONE NOTICE.

Welcome News to Its Many Patrons.

By next Wednesday night the stringing of the cables will be completed and all the connections will be made. The management regrets the annoyance that has been caused the patrons by the installation of the cable system but trusts and believes that the improved service after Wednesday night will more than repay them for the inconvenience suffered. W. H. MCCLINTOCK, Manager.

A Creditable Display.

The window display at the China Hall is a very creditable one and has attracted the attention of hundreds of people.

It is very unique and was arranged by Brit Rea and Mr. Malone of the firm. The display consists of an engine, train of cars and caboose and it was made entirely of articles they have for sale and nothing was spoiled but the little pie pans that were used for wheels, having a nail driven through them. Happy Hooligan is stealing a ride under one of the cars, and as usual has met with bad luck, as the "cop" is on one of the cars and has detected him. Foxy Grand Pa is the engineer and the line is known as the Santa Fe Central.
